

NEIGHBORHOOD DEPUTIES PROGRAM

Community Pride in Action!

Who We Are

The Neighborhood Deputy Program is the volunteer arm of Citizens of the Department of Planning and Community Development's Bureau of Code Compliance.

What We Do

Educate and train residents about code and zoning violations

Programmatic Overview

- Educate Residents
- Identify Violations
- Report Violations
- Follow-up on violations
- Assist communities in coordinating outreach plans

Code Violations Addressed By Neighborhood Deputies

- Dilapidated, Fire Damaged, Open & Vacant Properties (Residential & Commercial)
- Illegal Car Repairs
- Illegal Rooming Houses
- Junk Vehicles
- Missing Addresses
- Parking on Grass
- Trees
- Vacant and Overgrown Lots

Outreach

- 8-hour training program for Volunteer Residents;
- Presentations made to Neighborhood Planning Units (NPU's), Schools, Parent/Teacher Associations (PTAs), Civic and Community groups

NDP Mission

- Utilize Code Enforcement education and training to motivate and organize residents.

NDP Goals

- Educate residents about code and zoning violations
- Foster Community Pride
- Identify community and governmental resources to assist in maintenance for residents
- Involve residents in the code enforcement process
- Leadership Development

NDP Benefits

- A cleaner, safer neighborhood
- Improved Market Values
- Developing, lasting relationships with City of Atlanta residents
- Identification of community resources

Annual Event

- Code Enforcement Awareness Week (month of May)

On-going Programs

- Bi-monthly Educational Workshops
- Quarterly Deputy Training Programs
- Community and School Presentations

How You Can Get Involved

For more information on the Neighborhood Deputies Program, or if you are interested in joining please visit us at www.atlantaga.gov/government/planning/codescompliance.aspx. To submit an inquiry, contact the Neighborhood Deputies Program office at 404.330.6197 or via email at ndp@atlantaga.gov.

Contact Information

Tanya C. Mitchell, Program Coordinator
404.330.6197 (tel)
404.658.7084 (fax)
ndp@atlantaga.gov